What is "SAKURA" Japan Women's Wine Awards?

It is the largest wine competition in Japan chaired by Ms. Yumi Tanabe, wine educator and writer. The women judges are selected among wine specialists including sommeliers, winemakers, wine educators, wine journalists and distributors. This is the fourth year and there were 4,212 items entered. It has shown considerable growth rate (19%) compared to 3,543 items last year. The wines were judged under strict supervision by blind tasting by 406 judges. The idea of evaluating wine exclusively by female judges set a new guideline and consequently will energize the wine industry.
